

F A E X E C
Jay White Co-President, Co-Steward
Rita Wong Co-President Co-Steward
Lindsay McIntyre Co-Vice President
Alex Hass Co-Vice President
Sunny Nestler Secretary Henry Tsang Treasurer

non-reg teaching support 2020 home office support

office supplies

reimbursements or pickup from the front desk; post-it notes, printer paper, highlighters, pens, paper clips, etc, sadly this doesn't include printer ink cartridges afowler@ecuad.ca

office chairs

request an ergonomic chair by contacting the Facility Clerk. Pick-up or deliver. fclerk@ecuad.ca microsoft office access Microsoft Office through our partner web store called Kivuto. To access favourable prices for Microsoft Office login at: ecuad.onthehub.com If you don't have an "onthehub" account, create an account using your ECU e-mail address and choose "Staff" as your group. it is unclear how long this offer may stay available to the ECU community additional home office needs

The school has invested in more headphones and mics for online teaching. These can be found in Media Resources. mediareources@ecuad.ca curriculum support

curricular benefit fund

$35 per 3-credit course per year. This funding supports activities that benefit students in their courses. Funds allocated may include expenses for classroom activities, guest speakers, course materials for students, field trips, and more. HR and the PD Committee will send out final contact details by the end of the month

course materials $50 per 3 credits

Course material funding is faculty dependent. Receipts must be submitted in the semester they were expensed. Foundation contact is Gaye Fowler gflower@ecuad.ca. For other courses contact Dean's admin assistant

$20 instructor print cards 1 per class instructors are allotted $20 for additional print needs for each class – contact your Dean's assistant

ART tchalmers@ecuad.ca

DDM amilne@ecuad.ca

CAC jdickieson@ecuad.ca

Grad Studies gradstudies@ecuad.ca financial support

ecufa non-regular solidarity fund

Please apply for the $400 assistance as we have funds enough for most non regular faculty. Fill out this editable PDF form, & save with your surname added to the file name. Email to ecuadfa@gmail.com

18hr non regular pay bump be on the lookout on Nov 30 if you taught summer or fall 2020 professional development fund

$50/studio | $62.50/academic course
If you've taught 2 courses per term for 2 semesters, or are currently teaching 40% course load or more you can apply for PD funds. Things like a symposium, equipment, a workshop, and books are all eligible. Expenses covered through other funding sources shouldn't be included Pedagogy and Practice form
Send to Marion Morgan mmorgan@ecuad.ca decolonization and Indigenization fund

Funds up to $250 per faculty member each year. Funds will be allocated to applications that fulfill the requirements on a first-come first-served basis Decolonization and Indigenization Fund

MARFEC

is a fund initiated at Emily Carr to support non-regular faculty facing cash shortages, the fund is designed to distribute money with as little bureaucracy as possible. Contact marfec@ecuad.ca for more details

pension plans

Non-regular faculty are eligible to participate in the BC College Pension Plan and the Canada Pension Plan. Connect with HR if you haven't looked into your options as well. . .

employee & family assistance program

EFAP is a confidential and voluntary support service providing counselling services to faculty and their dependents. Immediate and confidential support suited to your preferences, for no cost workhealthlife.com 1.844.880.9142 enroll in an ECU or CS class for free

Every instructor can take a course per term as long as no student is displaced... to sign-up for a specific class check-out the classes and register as faculty

ECU business cards

go to our printer's website: <http://order.hemlock.com/ecuad> or contact Alex Fowler afowler@ecuad.ca